THE BEAUTY OF THE UNEXPECTED

On the edge between chaos and perfection, MAINGUILTY's new collection emerges as a manifesto of boldness. Here, raw matter defies form, texture challenges perception, and balance arises from the unexpected.

Each piece is an enigma — a dialogue between untamed nature and the precision of design. Marble sculpted by time, wood shaped by artistry, and the enigmatic gleam of stainless steel—a cold, relentless element that contrasts with the organicity of forms. A fusion of materials that echoes the great classics of world design, reinterpreted through a new lens: more disruptive, more visceral, more MAINGUILTY.

This is not just a collection. It is an invitation to explore the unknown, to feel the intensity of detail, and to step into a universe where design becomes a mystery waiting to be unveiled.
