CORK ARTISANS

CRAFTING NATURE

Granorte brings together skilled cork artisans and the natural beauty of cork. Rooted in Portugal's long tradition of working with this unique material, the company transforms cork into modern, high-quality surfaces for floors and walls. Every product reflects the connection between nature, craftsmanship, and thoughtful design.

Working with cork requires balance and understanding. Each piece has its own texture, density, and character. Our artisans know how to respect these natural qualities while shaping them into something new.

Beauty appears in the process of transformation. By exploring patterns, textures, and finishes, Granorte creates Coverings that feel timeless and warm. Innovation and manual craftsmanship work side by side to reveal the best of cork as a sustainable, elegant material. Every Granorte creation carries the mark of skilled makers, the richness of nature, and a commitment to responsible design. This harmony is at the heart of who we are.

GRANORTE

DOMOTEX 2026

Cork is at the centre of everything we create. We shape it, reimagine it and watch it respond in ways we didn't expect. The familiar becomes surprising. New surfaces emerge. Colours shift. Textures deepen. New possibilities appear. Ideas unfold. A single material becomes many forms.

We reimagine cork as something alive and adaptable. We experiment, test boundaries, and discover how cork can transform a space, guide a moment, or set a tone. Each panel, each detail invites touch and curiosity. Alongside updated tones, new products take form. Each one was created with purpose and guided by a desire to show how cork can inspire the next chapter of interior design. The journey is ongoing, and every step brings something unexpected.
