ABOUT

Wewood – Portuguese Joinery is a Portuguese heritage design brand specialized in designing and producing exclusive solid wood furniture.

Family-owned, independent, environmentally and socially responsible, we are a design house committed to maintaining production in an artisanal, creative, innovative and responsible way.

Made in Portugal since 1964, we are proud of our heritage grounded in the principles of quality of materials, durable construction and timeless design.

Most of our furniture is crafted from solid wood, a natural material appreciated for its inherent beauty and ability to age with grace over time.
